FRECKLES, JELLYBEANS

It's a pink morning, a pink morning, fresh and glory bes,
Tickle pink,
Pinky ink,
Freckles, jellybeans.

It's a gray daydream, a gray daydream, misty mountain song.
Mellow gray
Has its way
Of blending right and wrong, right and wrong.

It's a blue evening, a blue evening, candlelighting blue,
Happy hue,
Happy two,
Wine and dining you.

And the night is cool, the night is black, goosebumps down my arm.
Shadows play,
Take my breath away,
Shelter me from harm, me from harm.

Life is a circle of colors. Take all your feelings from them,
Or open your heart to your vision,
And paint a new landscape within.
Paint a new landscape within.

It's a cherry day now,
Red berry day now,
Fruity, juicy, bright.
Colors shout
All about,
Chase away the night.

And the afternoon's green, the afternoon's green, lazy, dazy feet,
Lawns and yawns,
Cocktail prawns,
Avocado treat, it's a treat.

Life is a circle of colors. Take all your feelings from them,
Or open your heart to your vision,
And paint a new landscape within.
Paint a new landscape within.

It's a pink morning, a pink morning, fresh and glory bes,
Tickle pink,
Pinky ink,
Freckles, jellybeans, freckles, jellybeans, freckles, jellybeans.
